

Heather Temple

Heather Temple is a Registered Nurse trained in Ontario, with a Bachelors Degree in nursing from U of Manitoba-Option in Aging. She has a Bachelors in Health Services Management through the Canadian School of Management and a certificate in public health from the University of Toronto. Positions worked included frontline nursing, supervisory and administrative work. Positions been in union and management executive. She worked in hospitals, long term care and northern communities as well as in Scotland. She taught in the northern nursing program out of James Bay Ontario area, was provincial educator with the Manitoba division of The Arthritis Society presenting to their national conference on a framework for health promotion within the aboriginal population as it relates to arthritis management and participated as a presenter with the Health Canada Get a Grip on Arthritis research project. She holds the position of Health Management Specialist for Motor Coach Industries Ltd in Winnipeg to assist in the development of health promotion and illness prevention programming as well as collaborating with disability management on complex return to work issues.