

John Elias, MPH, CIH, ROH, CRSP

Mr. Elias has over 35 years of experience in the field of occupational hygiene and environmental studies. He is presently a director of OHG Consulting Inc. He was the Head of Air Pollution Control for the Province of Manitoba, he was responsible for the design and implementation of community air monitoring programs within the province. He has also held the position of Head of Industrial Hygiene for the Province of Manitoba, where he was responsible for the design and implementation of workplace monitoring programs, and drafting regulations. He also served as senior corporate Occupational Hygienist for the Health Sciences Centre where he developed and implemented a corporate occupational hygiene program.